
Alignment with Editor Expectations

Library Publishing Forum March 2014

Kristy Archuleta, Kansas State University

Joshua Neds-Fox, Wayne State University

Session Overview

1. Introduction / Projected Outcomes (15 min)
 2. Breakout groups (30 min)
 3. General discussion (30 min)
-

Introduction

Kristy Archuleta

Kansas State University, Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Financial Therapy

New Prairie Press, <http://newprairiepress.org/jft/>

Joshua Neds-Fox

Wayne State University Libraries, Coordinator for Digital Publishing

<http://digitalcommons.wayne.edu>

Projected Outcomes

1. Define/identify expectations of editors
 2. What opportunities are Library Publishing Services (LPS) providing? Not providing?
 3. Ideas to help LPS expectations align with editor expectations.
-

Define editor expectations

Discuss (10 Mins):

What do (journal) editors expect of (library) publishing services?

Identify LPS opportunities

Discuss (10 Mins):

What should we be doing / offering / taking advantage of as library publishing services? What are we / aren't we doing?

How to align LPS w/ expectations

Discuss (10 Mins):

How do we align library publishing opportunities with editor expectations?

General discussion (30 min)

(Record outcomes here live as they happen)

Questions?

Kristy Archuleta

Kansas State University

kristy@k-state.edu

Joshua Neds-Fox

Wayne State University Libraries

jnf@wayne.edu
