

Owned by the Academy: A Preconference on
Open Source Publishing Platforms

May 21, 2018

Who we are

James MacGregor - Associate Director of Strategic Projects and Services

Alec Smecher - Associate Director of Development

Kevin Stranack - Associate Director for Community Engagement & Learning

Andrea Pritt - PKP Publishing Services Associate

What we do

Hosting: we host and support our software so you don't have to!

- We manage the software, you own the data
- Direct, unmatched support from the core PKP team
- DIY to full Enterprise support
- Single journals/presses to multi-platform solutions
- NEW: Editorial production support now available (incl. JATS, HTML, PDF publishing)

What we do

Consultation and Special Projects:

- Data migration (Metapress, bepress, etc.)
- Theming work (design and implementation)
- Custom development projects (esp. those that benefit the community)

What we do

Why do we do this?

- We provide an option for those who otherwise wouldn't be able to use our software
- We provide specialized support that is not available elsewhere
- We're "eating our own dog food": our client feedback goes straight to the developers for further improvements
- Revenues directly support ½ or so of the Project as a whole (and 10,000 actively publishing journals!)
