Our Values

Creation

Openness

User Control

Accessibility

Creation/overview

- Easy creation of interactive web-based books ...

Creation/export formats

- Webbook (mobile-responsive)
- PDF (print, digital)
- EPUB, MOBI
- Common Cartridge (coming Q2)
  - XML
  - XHTML
  - OpenDocument

Openness

- Pressbooks is open source (GPL)
- Wide usage for creating OER
- Enable openly licensed content (or not!).
- Open formats & interoperability
- Cloning of open content

Pressbooks helps you create truly open textbooks that allow the 5R permissions: retain, reuse, revise, remix, redistribute.

User Control

- Open source, means no proprietary lock-in
- Produce your content, your way
- Send your content anywhere
- You decide on which licenses used
- We don't track users / exploit student data

Accessibility

- A core commitment
- Continuous improvements underway, working with Inclusive Design Research Center at OCADU
- More: <https://pressbooks.org/accessibility/>

From Our Users

“It’s the community of folks working on the codebase, and working with OER inside of Pressbooks, that makes it a solid choice for us to begin our own OER initiative with.”

--Billy Meinke, OER Technologist, University of Hawaii

From Our Users

“Built on the power of WordPress, [Pressbooks] continues to harness plugins that enhance learning and empower educators.”--Peggy French, Program Manager, eCampusOntario

From Our Users

“For anyone interested in publishing open textbooks or other OER with teaching and learning applications, Pressbooks is the best tool in its class.”--Steel Wagstaff, Instructional Technology Consultant, University of Wisconsin-Madison

From Our Users

“Pressbooks EDU is problem-solving in open textbook production. That's why we've used it to produce our Open Textbook Network guides, and offer a sandbox space and discount to our members.”--Karen Lauritsen, Managing Director, Open Textbook Network
