

Library Publishing Coalition 2022 Peer Mentorship Program

Brought to you by the LPC Professional Development Committee

PROGRAM GOALS

- Primary: To enrich participants' experiences with the LPC, and build meaningful relationships between peers.
- Secondary: To further the development of library publishing through a professional, semi-structured mentorship program.

SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES

- Schedule an initial getting-to-know-you call.
- Meet monthly and work together to agree on discussion topics and/or goals (optional: use the Professional Development Committee's monthly prompts to guide discussions).
- Attend special meetups hosted by the Professional Development Committee at LPF2022 (details TBD).

ELIGIBILITY AND APPLYING

- All LPC members are welcome to apply! You do not need to be your institution's voting member.
- Apply via a Google Form asking basic contact and professional information, plus questions about your goals and expectations.

GUIDELINES

- We will provide a list of basic guidelines for pairs to adhere to (establish ground rules, meeting schedule, be open and positive, etc.) and a basic Code of Conduct.

TIMELINE

- The 2022 Program will run from February 2022 to December 2022. There will be a mid-year check-in survey in the summer and an evaluation questionnaire in December.
- The mid-year check-in provides an opportunity for necessary changes to program participation.
- Each year, we will open up applications for new participants. Alumni are welcome!

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Library Publishing Coalition
Professional Development Committee Members

Chelsea Johnston (cjohnston@ufl.edu), Mary Beth Weber (mbfecko@libraries.rutgers.edu), and Liz Hamilton (emhamilton@northwestern.edu).